

How to Start a PACT Ambassador Program

To Parents and Educators:

The power of this program is that it is run for and by students. As a result, we require student interest and initiative for the start of a chapter. If you are a parent or educator that would like to see a Chapter in a school near you, please fill out the application form. Try to be as thorough as possible so that we can make arrangements to provide information to students at that school in order to facilitate student discussion and interest in the program. Below is an outline of the steps on how to start a PACT Ambassador Program.
